NOTES AND NEWS

THE following delegates have been appointed to represent the American Philosophical Society on the following occasions: Vice-president William B. Scott, of Princeton, to represent the society at the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the Royal Society in July next; Professors Paul Haupt, of Baltimore, E. Washburn Hopkins, of New Haven, Morris Jastrow, Jr., of Philadelphia, and A. V. Williams Jackson, of New York, as delegates to the eleventh International Congress of Orientalists, to be held at Athens on April 7 to 14; Dr. Franz Boas, of New York, a delegate to the eighteenth International Congress of Americanists, to be held in London from May 27 to June 1. At the centenary of the Academy of Natural Sciences on March 19 to 21 the society was officially represented by Professor Henry F. Osborn, of New York, Dr. Charles D. Walcott, of Washington, Mr. Samuel Vauclain, of Philadelphia, Professor William B. Clark, of Baltimore, and Dr. Henry H. Donaldson, of Philadelphia.

THE Princeton University Press announces the publication of President Witherspoon's Lectures on Moral Philosophy, edited by Mr. V. L. Collins, of Princeton University. This reprint is the first in the series of "Early American Philosophers," planned by the American Philosophical Association, and to be published under its auspices by the universities with which the respective authors, whose works are to be reprinted, were most intimately connected. The text is that of the first edition, that of 1800, which the editor has collated not only with the editions of 1810 and 1822 but also with manuscript versions of the lectures written in 1772, 1782 and 1795, and significant variants have been noted. The Introduction is a study of Dr. Witherspoon's many-sided character; and a check-list of his published writings has been supplied. The frontispiece is a reproduction of the portrait of Dr. Witherspoon by Charles Wilson Peale. The edition is limited to 500 copies.

THE New York Branch of the American Psychological Association met in conjunction with the Section of Anthropology and Psychology of the New York Academy of Sciences on Monday, April 22. At the afternoon session, which met at Columbia University, the following papers were read: "Sex Differences in Incidental Memory," Mr. G. C. Myers; "Studies in Recognition Memory," Dr. E. K. Strong; "Individual Differences in the Interests of Children," Miss Gertrude M. Kuper; "Experiments with the Hampton Court Maze," Professor H. A. Ruger. The papers read at the evening session at the American Museum of Natural History were as follows: "Relation of Interference to Adaptability," Mr. A. J. Culler; "The Optimal Distribution of Time and the Relation of Length of Material to Time Taken for Learning," Mr. D. O. Lyon; "The Age of Walking and Talking in Relation to General Intelligence," Mr. C. D. Mead; "Practise in the Case of Children of School Age," Mr. T. H. Kirby.

MRS. CHRISTINE LADD FRANKLIN has given three university lectures on color vision before the department of psychology of Columbia University, as follows: March 25, "The Theory of Color Theories—The Color Triangle and the Color Square—The Facts Inconsistent with the Hering Theory"; March 27, "The Young-Helmholtz Theory in its Latest Form—its Indispensableness and its Inadequacy"; March 29, "The Recent Views on Color—Brunner, Pauli, Bernstein, Schenck—The Development Theory of Color."

THE Philosophical Institute of Canterbury, New Zealand, which came into existence on August 30, 1862, will celebrate its jubilee this year. It is proposed to mark the occasion by holding a gathering in Christchurch.

DR. DURANT DRAKE, of the University of Illinois, has accepted the position of associate professor of ethics and the philosophy of religion at Wesleyan (Middletown, Conn.) University.
